

i really feel the banking industry should stay with banking and not determine who will call my home. they say calls come in at dinner time, BULLSHIT!!!! i work nights and dont need my phone going off 3-4 times a day. if i want something i will make the call